Dynamic Euro-Tour to be staged in Treviso, Italy, in December

Wednesday, 05 October 2011: The final Dynamic Euro-Tour of the 2011 season will be played from December 1st to 3rd, 2011, in BHR Hotel in Treviso, Italy.

Since the word spread after last week's press release about the fact that the recent Dynamic Euro-Tour in Hungary would be the last one for 2011, the Italian Federation has done some immediate research on possible venues for another tournament this year. They came up with a renowned site for Euro-Tour events, the BHR Hotel in Treviso. After submitting all proposals to the Euro-Tour organizers lately, the management of the IBP agreed to have another event in Treviso this year. It will be the second time the tour stops in Treviso after April and the experiences from the previous events are very good. "We are looking forward to coming back to BHR Hotel in Treviso once again", said David Morris, IBP President, "we only have the best experiences there and we know we can rely on a productive cooperation in order to be able to present the professional setup for our event that our players are used to get".

The Dynamic Euro-Tour Treviso Open will be the sixth and final event of the 2011 series.

The Euro-Tour event will be hosted by the European Governing Body for Pool, the European Pocket Billiard Federation (EPBF) and organized by International Billiard Promotion (IBP).
